Dear Janie (Sis)

All last summer I thought of the wonderful times we would have together in our Junior Year and my thoughts came true, cuz it sure has been a happy, and hectic year.

Remember the parade for the first game of the year that my car was in. What a messy decorating job we did, but it was fun.

Hasn't it been fun spending the night with ~~each~~ each. We always started out listening for the songs we requested but doubt if we ever heard one, because of the GREAT gossip we carried on. We had some rare talks didn't we. We weren't even afraid to double date with each other. Gosh the fun we had that night. ~~At~~ Jay and Bob were quite the cute ups, especially Jay (moodo). The weekend I spent with you when your Mom and Pop went to Palm Beach I believe I gained at least ten pounds. We were quite the secretaries, too. Remember -

How silly, but it was fun. The weekend of the Prom that you spent here was "gala" (note vocabulary) also. Your boyfriend was quite inperdictable. Early one night, late another. I'll never forget getting up at 6:00 in the morning, and finding Bob in the living room, what a shock when we both woke up (thanks to your Mom) and found it was 12:10.

Jane and Nan, the great cooks putting bicarbonate of soda in cookies. (Ough up where's the alka Seltzer). That sweet stuff we made, came out OK. though. And me, the little dumb one, cooking steak without putting grease in the pan. (Sizzle sizzle)

The beach parties and slumber (less) parties were all loads and loads of fun. The little birdie (the camera) appeared at all of them. Oh what pictures came out. What? Pictures!! The parties you and I gave were the most fun though.

P.S. This wouldn't be complete without a P.S. Remember the neat outside washings we had under the sprinkler, let's not forget those horrible "Lents" that come once in a church year. Jane and Nancy's dieting period. Also the sensation Sunday School classes with the great Bob Harpham. ("King Jerko") Gasparilla Day and that unforgettable ride to Tampa with Rowena. It was worth the zero. Then of all things the battery got stuck.

Going down the river at Hillsborough State Park was fun for any lazy people. And the ride on the hood of Jay Rowns car. And were both still alive after all of that. Well Jane, always remember me for talking. I've proven it here.

Oh well, we had good intentions any how.

Thanks loads Janie, for towing me around so much in the "ole buggy" and the postage BUY A BUICK!!!

Remember the big tennis pro's that we started out to be. "Wha happened" (The balls got lost, good excuse)

The telephone conversations were quite casual. Not much was said, but boy would we giggle just hearing the other person breath. Come to think of it I don't see anything funny about breathing.

Don't forget the nig that Sunday afternoon. Oh, how funny! What a feeling.

Gosh, Janie you sure are a swell girl to have for a friend. You are so cute and that smile warms everybody. Keep on being as friendly as you are now and "Sis" you're sure to go far. Hang on to Bob. He wonderful. Barrels of good luck for you, and please don't forget me this summer. Love ya lots, Nan.

Dear Jane,

Hey Hi Hello Jane, its me, Nan again. Remember that awful ole horrible man that walked in the bathroom when I was in there when I was staying at your house. Nobody could tell you from me but brother. It still was night embarrassing.

Remember the poop man on the beach, and the guy from New Jersey. You do OK as a bathing beauty, (so long as you limit it to the bath tub.)

I'm only kidding sis. Hey Jane stop kissing in the front seat. I know all about you and Bob now. Oh yeepp, I almost forgot our many library "literary" periods. Your autobiography would be a first class seller. Stop chewing the fat Janie. Don't cha know its bad. Well Jane my ink is running out of the pen just a little more than

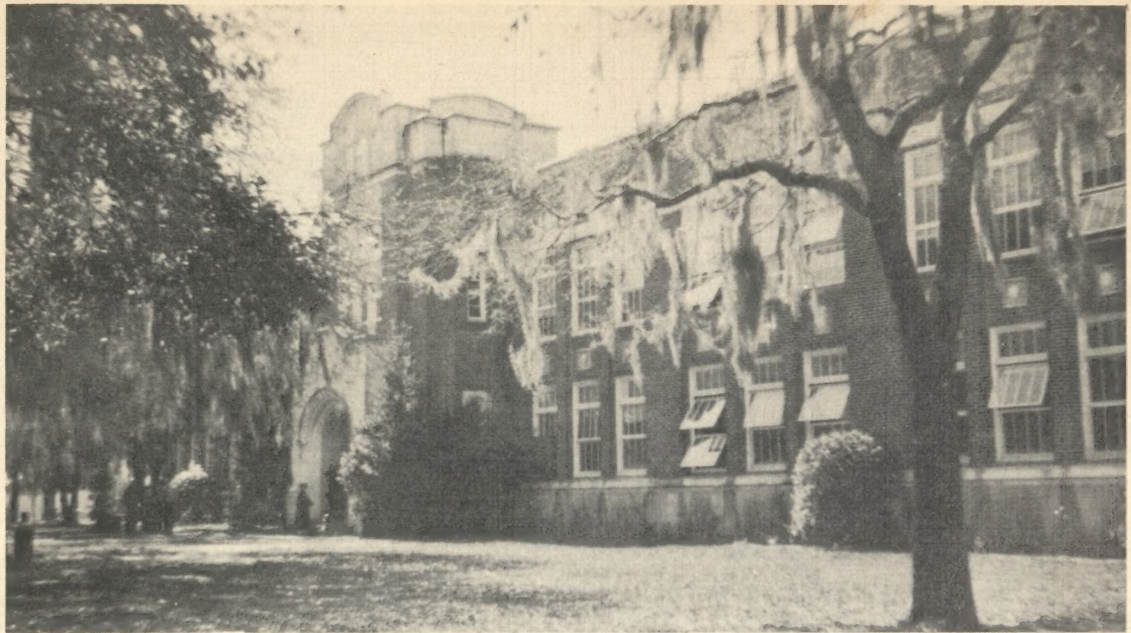

I suspected (what this I'm doing writing under water. There's a sea shell.

Lots more luck and wished to the most wonderful friend,

ALMA MATER . . .

Foreword . . .

In a sense, the AQUA CLARA 1953 is a picture of Clearwater High School: what outsiders might see if they looked through and examined the record. But for students, especially the seniors, the pictures herein are only reminders of memories which lie deeper than pictures. For the enduring values which you may detect in word and picture, we present this annual, confident that these pages symbolize C. H. S. and the good times we have had in our three years here.

MR. JOHN P. CUMMER

Dedication . . .

We, the SENIOR CLASS of Clearwater High School, 1953, wish to pay honor to a member of the faculty who has been our constant guide and a source of help, who came to C.H.S. the same year we did, and shared with us the experience of getting acquainted. Not one of our problems has been too small to receive his attention. In token of our deepest gratitude, we would like to dedicate this, our yearbook, to Mr. John P. Cummer.

Jane, you really improved your telephone calls and I wish to congratulate you for calling so many times.
At first it took me an hour to get over the shock! Now I'm covered and I'm looking forward to many more sly conversations next year. (Please notice I left the face so you could recognize him)
Haha! (but of course wasn't it!)

We really have had fun at the beach this year. That paper stick is still around here somewhere.
Do you still have yours? Page 117

Lots of luck to a swell girl. Keep smiling & you will succeed as you have in the past. - Jack

Dear Jane,

I am going to write teeny-ting because of Jack Rist. The year really started out swell. It was so good to see you that night when you first came home. The only difference was that you were skinnier. (I noticed it too!!!)

Thanks a whole lot for all those letters you wrote this summer! All right of them. Pardone ole girl, there were nine! Every time I got one it meant the time was coming closer when we'd start another school year together.

Remember when we both sort of liked the little pro football player from Oklahoma (I think)! It just works out that way every time. Remember at the Fargo basketball game when we discovered we both were watching the same pro? I know I'll never forget the look on your face when you realized it!

I sure did spend some wonderful nights at your house. Remember the time I was staying at your house and we went to a basketball game and Johnny was real mad about something? We thought it was funny. (Har har)

Remember all the stuff we tried to make but it didn't exactly turn out. Every time we decided on something, part of the stuff wasn't there. I've sure eaten a lot of shubert at your house, Jane.

Someday we will really march down avenue to "Pomp and Circumstance" but in the meantime I like to hear you play(?) it and also to walk down your hall with you to our own version of it!

Your diary sure turned out to be interesting. Remember the time you came to my house and we had a long session of "true confessing". Very surprising results I hope nobody who reads this will get the wrong idea!

The parties this year have really been better than ever. Especially yours. (Sunday no one else. remember it!!!) ^{cont.} _{over}
